

Wijnfiche

Vini Menhir- Pietra | Salento IGT Primitivo – Susumaniello Italy (APULIA) – 2022

Domain

Vini Menhir

The wines of Vini Menhir come from Puglia in the heel of the boot of Italy. The vineyards are located in Basso Salento (province of Lecce) and in Alto Salento (province of Taranto-Brindisi). By planting different grape varieties in different wine regions, it is possible to produce a number of different types of wine here. The amount of grapes per hectare is limited and all grapes are harvested manually at the right time and selected with the utmost care for ripeness. This care gives the wines a very balanced and concentrated character.

Vinification

The quantity of grapes per hectare is limited and all grapes are harvested manually at the right time and carefully selected for maturity. This care gives the wines a very balanced and concentrated character. After long skin contact, before and during alcoholic fermentation, the wine will mature for 3 months on its fine lees.

Taste

Ruby red color with a purple hue. In the nose aromas of red currant accompanied with some spiciness. In the mouth a wine with a round, rich structure with fine tannins.

Food pairing

Meat - grilled | Feathered game | Cheese - aged | Pork cheek

General information

Type: Red wine

Grape varieties: Primitivo (60%), Susumaniello (40%)

Viticulture: Traditional

Storage (years): + 3-5

Serving temperature: 16-18 °C

Taste profile: Complex generous

